

activities of the continental campaign "Against educational inequality, a transformative education", promoted by the Initiative for Democratic Education in the Americas (IDEA Network). We hope to find a meeting point between experiences influenced by Freire's thinking and experiences emanating from popular action and from the cosmovision of indigenous peoples.

HEMISPHERIC FORUM

Weaving public education that transforms the world

Objectives:

- To place transformative pedagogy into the debate in the context of pandemic, recreating experiences of alternative education throughout our continent.
- Consolidate educational policies that allow us to guarantee the right to education over policies that conceive it as a commodity.

Thematic areas:

- Educational policy in times of pandemic. Resistance and contemporary struggles: a) Dispute over content; b) Working conditions, technologies, teachers and student movements.
- Paulo Freire a hundred years after his birth, the influence of his thought on pedagogical practices.
- Pedagogical alternatives. Experiences from North to South on emancipatory pedagogies.
- Strategies to weave pedagogical struggle throughout the continent.

Speakers: researchers, teachers, students, parents, activists, trade unionists, with work on the topics of interest. Proposals must be sent no later than September 24 to the following e-mail address: Indicating: 1) Topic in which you are interested in participating; 2) Title of the paper; 3) Abstract of 300 words maximum; 4) Brief biographical sketch of the speaker; 5) E-mail address.
